

Mr Kiwi has an important job because

Mrs Kiwi is his mate.

Mrs Kiwi gets to work.
She eats and eats

and eats and EATS!

Mr Kiwi waits.

A kiwi bird with a long, white beak and a large, spiky crest of brown feathers is shown in a dark forest at night. The bird is positioned on the right side of the frame, looking towards the viewer. The forest floor is covered in tall, thin grasses, some of which are illuminated with a blue light. In the background, there are several trees with dark, textured foliage. The overall scene is dimly lit, with a dark blue sky and a small, glowing light source in the upper right corner. The text is overlaid on the left side of the image.

Mr Kiwi must prepare.
He uses poo to mark his place

and kicks and claws to keep it safe.

He fills his tummy with bugs
and grubs and wriggly worms.

Mr Kiwi has an important job.
